NIOCAN INC.

Report to the Shareholders

Period ended March 31, 2010

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company, incorporated under Part 1A of the Quebec Companies Act on August 29, 1995, holds a niobium property in Oka, Québec and exploration properties in the province of Québec.

1. Nature of operations and going concern :

The Company is at the development stage and has mineral exploration and development properties in the province of Quebec. Substantially, all of the company's efforts are currently devoted to financing, developing and obtaining permits for its niobium property in Oka.

The Company is in the process of exploring and evaluating its mineral properties and projects and has not yet determined whether its properties and projects, excluding its Oka Niobium Project, contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. With respect to the Oka Niobium Project, the Company has determined in 1999 that the property contains ore reserves which are economically recoverable. The ability of the Company to meet its commitments as they become payable, including the acquisitions of mineral properties and the development of projects, is dependent on the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing. The recoverability of the amounts shown for mineral properties is dependent upon the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to complete the acquisition, exploration and development thereof, and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the disposal of properties.

The financial statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying values of assets and liabilities that would be necessary if the Company were unable to realize its assets or discharge its obligations in anything other than the ordinary course of operations.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to mineral properties in which it has an interest in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Property title may be subject to unregistered prior agreements and non-compliance with regulatory requirements.

2. Change in accounting policies :

Future accounting pronouncements

International financial reporting standards:

In February 2008, the Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") announced that accounting standards in Canada are to converge with the IFRS and that public companies will be required to present their financial statements, with comparative data, under these standards for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of these requirements on its financial statements.

NIOCAN INC.

Report to the Shareholders

Period ended March 31, 2010

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS3. Significant accounting policies :*(a) Mining properties and deferred exploration expenditures :

Mining assets consist of deferred expenditures and development costs related to properties for which economically recoverable reserves exist. Mining assets are, upon commencement of production, depleted over the estimated life of the ore reserve to which they relate or are written off if the property is abandoned or when there is an impairment in value.

Exploration assets are carried at cost. Exploration and development expenses relating to a non-producing property are deferred until the property is brought into production or abandoned. If exploration work does not provide positive results or upon abandonment, these costs are charged to earnings. Management reviews the carrying values of assets on a regular basis to determine whether any write-downs are necessary.

Recovery of the cost of mining and exploration assets depends on the discovery of economically recoverable ore reserves for the exploration assets, the Company's ability to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of the properties and future profitable production or the disposal of the properties for proceeds in excess of their carrying value.

(b) Equipment :

Equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the declining balance method at the following annual rates :

Asset	Rate
Equipment and furniture	20%
Computer equipment	30%

NIOCAN INC.

Period ended March 31, 2010

(c) Stock-based compensation :

The Company records stock-based compensation to its participants at fair value. According to the fair value method, a compensation expense is charged to operating expenses based on the fair value of the stock options issued over their vesting period. Upon the exercise of stock options, capital stock is credited in the amount paid plus the corresponding employee compensation expense previously recorded.

(d) Future income taxes :

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values and their respective tax bases. Future tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates anticipated to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on future tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is included in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company renounces tax deductions relating to resource expenditures that are financed by the issuance of flow-through shares for the benefit of its shareholders, as permitted by the tax legislation.

Under the asset and liability method used to account for income taxes, future income taxes related to the temporary differences created by this renouncement are recorded in accordance with EIC-146 when the Company renounces these deductions and a corresponding cost of issuing the securities is also recorded.

(e) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NIOCAN INC.

Report to the Shareholders

Period ended March 31, 2010

(f) Cash and cash equivalents:

The Company considers deposits in banks, certificates of deposit and short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less as cash and cash equivalents. The major components of cash and cash equivalents are as follows :

	March 31, 2010	December 31, 2009
Cash	$ 149,956	$ 96,710
Money market fund	403,956	653,593
	$ 553,912	$ 750,303

(g) Resource tax credits and mining rights:

The Company incurs exploration expenses that are eligible for tax credits. The tax credits are recorded based on the estimated amounts to be recovered. The amounts claimed are subject to an audit by the tax authorities.

Tax credits on exploration costs relating to mining and exploration assets are deducted from the related asset.

(h) Financial instruments::

Sections 3855 and 3865 establish standards for recognizing and measuring financial assets, financial liabilities and derivatives. Under these standards, financial instruments are now classified as held-for-trading, available-for-sale, held-to-maturity, loans and receivables, or other financial liabilities, and measurement in subsequent periods depends on their classification. Transaction costs are expensed as incurred for financial instruments classified as held-for-trading. For other financial instruments, transaction costs are capitalized on initial recognition and presented as an adjustment to the underlying financial instruments. Financial assets and financial liabilities held-for-trading are measured at fair value with changes recognized in income. Available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value or at cost, in the case of financial assets that do not have a quoted market price in an active market, and changes in fair value are recorded in comprehensive income.

Financial assets held-to-maturity, loans and receivables, and other financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method of amortization. The Company has classified its cash and cash equivalents as held-for-trading. Accounts receivable were classified as loans and receivables. All of the Company's financial liabilities were classified as other financial liabilities.

a) Oka property :

The Oka mining property consists of mining rights comprised of 48 claims covering 1,604 acres, and surface rights on 231 acres.

The Company granted SGF Mines Inc. the option to acquire a 20% interest in two ore deposits of its mining property in consideration of a payment, representing 20% of total expenses incurred to bring the said ore deposits into production.

The Company also granted Teck Corporation the option to acquire a 25% interest of its mining property in consideration of a payment, representing 25% of total expenses incurred to bring the said ore deposits into production and by the payment of $1,000,000 cash of which $500,000 was received.

The options cannot be transferred without the Company's approval.

b) Grande-Baleine Property:

The Company owns a 100% interest in surface and mining rights for the iron property of Grande-Baleine covering 17,097.93 acres on the Hudson Bay territory.

11. Financial instruments and risk management:

The Company is exposed to various financial risks resulting from both its operations and its investment activities. The Company’s management monitors financial risks. The Company does not enter into financial instrument agreements including derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes.

The Company’s main financial risk exposure and its financial risk management policies are as follows:

a) Credit risk:

Credit risk results from the possibility that a loss may occur from the failure of another party to perform according to the terms of the contract. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents. Cash is maintained with high-credit, quality financial institutions. Cash equivalents consist of money market funds.

b) Interest rate risk:

The cash and cash equivalents bear interest at a variable rate and the Company is, therefore, exposed to the risk of changes in fair value resulting from interest rate fluctuations. The Company's other financial assets and liabilities do not comprise any interest rate risk since they do not bear interest.

c) Liquidity risk:

Management of liquidity risk aims to maintain a sufficient amount of cash and cash equivalents, and to ensure that the Company has at its disposal sufficient sources of financing such as private placements. The Company establishes cash budgets to ensure it has the necessary funds to fulfill its obligations. Obtaining new funds allows the Company to pursue its activities. Prior success raising funds does not guarantee success in the future

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS11. Financial instruments and risk management (continued):

Fair value estimates are made at the balance sheet date, based on relevant market information and other information about financial instruments.

12. Capital disclosures:

The Company's objectives when managing its capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to support ongoing exploration programs and development of its mining assets, to provide sufficient working capital to meet its ongoing obligations and to pursue potential investments.

In the management of capital, the Company includes the components of shareholders' equity, cash and cash equivalents as well as short-term investments.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in accordance with the aforementioned objectives, as well as in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Company may issue new shares, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments. The Company does not use long-term debts since it does not generate operating revenues. There is no dividend policy. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements. The Company's management of capital remained unchanged since the last period.

13 Commitments and contingencies:

- (1) The Company has lease commitments for premises and the minimum amount payable is $20,024 in 2010.
- (2) On February 2, 2004, the Company entered into a purchasing agreement with the city of Oka for the acquisition of the St. Lawrence Columbian site in the amount of $200,000. A total non-refundable amount of $45,000 was paid and the balance of $155,000 will be payable at the beginning of the construction work on the site. The Company has also committed itself to restore and clean an adjacent site. The acquisition of the site is conditional on obtaining all necessary permits, certificates and other authorizations from the Ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement et des Parcs (MDDEP) du Québec for the Oka project.
- (3) The Company has been named a defendant in a legal action claiming damages in the amount of $172,000. Management is of the opinion that there is a strong defense against the claim. Accordingly, no provision for losses has been reflected in the accounts of the Company for this matter.
